

I will register to vote but only if 10 other EU Citizens will too.

– Compass Youth, EU Citizens for London

More details: I am a non-British EU-citizen. I live in London. I commute in London. I work in London. I pay taxes in London. I breath in London air. That is why I care about how London is run and who it is run by. All EU-citizens have the right to vote in local, regional and elections to the European Parliament where ever they live within the European Union.

Living in Greater London I am entitled to vote in the Mayoral and GLA elections on May 1, 2008. That's why I have registered to vote. Why don't you? On how to register please visit http://www.londonelects.org.uk/registering_to_vote.aspx For further information on the May elections please visit <http://www.londonelects.org.uk/> Reminder service: For reminder emails a week ahead of registration deadline on April 16 and a week a head of the elections on May 1 please send an email to may.election@hotmail.com
